

End of Key Stage Two Progress Measures for Pupils with SEND

Reading

End of 2019: amongst students with SEN support at Applegarth Primary School is 7.48 points less than the School average, and 7.97 points less than the national average. The school gap has widened by 6.26 points since 2016/17.

End of 2022: Progress score of +2.3. The gap between pupils with SEND and others has diminished by 6.78 points to -0.7

Writing for students with SEN support is 7.80 points less than the School average, and 10.11 points less than the national average. The school gap has widened by 9.11 points since 2016/17.

End of 2022: 100% of pupils made expected progress in writing. The gap between pupils with SEND and others has diminished by 7.5 points to -0.3

Maths for students with SEN support at Applegarth Primary School is 1.01 points less than the School average, and 2.16 points lower than the national average. The school gap has narrowed by 0.83 points since 2016/17.

End of 2022: Progress core of +5.3. The gap between pupils with SEND and others has diminished by 0.31 points to -0.7