If you have a concern or a complaint about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance. If you are still unhappy you should contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful basis that we, Applegarth Primary School, rely on for processing pupil information can be found in the following table. We are able to process your personal data as we have a legal obligation and also to fulfil our contract with you.

Legal Basis	Description
Consent	The individual has given their explicit consent that their data can be used and processed. For example that their child can be photographed or they can be emailed for marketing purposes
Contract	You are in a contract with the individual to provide a service
Legal Obligation	The law says you must collect and process the information. For example a child's dietary requirements
Vital Interests	Processing the data is necessary to protect someone's life.
Public Task	Processing the data is in the public interest or it is an official duty. For example the majority of tasks undertaken by a Local Authority.
Legitimate Interests	There is a legitimate interest for you to process the data. For example HR or Payroll data

If data is processed relating to racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, this is defined as a 'special category' We process your child's special category data, for example; medical information under the following lawful basis: within Article 9, as well as any of the six bases listed above.

Full details of 'special categories' may be found at GDPR - Article 9

How we collect pupil information

We collect pupil information via the Parental Agreement Form, registration forms and the forms you complete for any voluntary consent.

Pupil data is essential for the Early Years Provider's operational use. Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this. For voluntary information we require your consent.

How we store pupil data

We hold pupil data securely for the set amount of time shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please speak to Justin Peoples (DPO) or visit the Policies and GDPR sections of the school website:

- <https://www.applegarth.n-yorks.sch.uk/key-information/school-policies/>

Who we share pupil information with

We routinely share and process personal and special category data that include:

- personal identifiers and contacts (such as name, unique pupil number, contact details and address)
- characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, and free school meal eligibility)
- safeguarding information (such as court orders and professional involvement)

- special educational needs (including the needs and ranking)
- medical and administration (such as doctors information, child health, dental health, allergies, medication and dietary requirements)
- attendance (such as sessions attended, number of absences, absence reasons and any previous schools attended)
- Other educational establishments that the children attend after leaving us
- our local authority; North Yorkshire Council
- the Department for Education (DfE)

If you would like more information on what the DfE does with your personal data please refer to the DfE website at <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>
